General Strategies / Next Steps

- Ensure students have opportunities to share their experiences with other students ahead of their course selection
- Increase visibility of available programs for students, staff, parents and community members
- Schedule representative from partnering organizations to directly share information
- Evaluate staffing resources currently assigned to support authentic learning experiences and adjust to facilitate strategic growth
- Continue to evaluate JSHS schedule to create additional opportunities for student participation
- Strengthen post-graduate data/feedback to help us understand impact of programs
- Review participation numbers for programs regularly

Specific Programs / Next Steps
